It is strongly discouraged that two experienced players baggage together. We cannot guarantee that all baggage requests will be honored, but we'll do our very best. Staple baggage forms together. ### Format

The league is designed for players of all experience levels. Players will be grouped by experience, and then equally distributed through a stratified lottery. This format ensures parity within the league and ensures that every team has a wide range of skills and experience.

Players with no experience may play with an experienced player. If you want to play with one particular person (spouse, significant other, etc.), staple their sheet to yours. Requests from two experienced players will NOT be honored. The idea of this league is to learn the game and make new friends!!!
